

It is with great honor and enthusiasm that I recommend Trinh Tran Nhat for the MBA program at [..Chương trình học bổng...] in Taiwan. As a lecturer in Entrepreneurship at FPT University, I had the pleasure of mentoring Trinh during a mandatory startup project—an integral part of the curriculum designed to foster innovation and business acumen.

Throughout the project, Trinh displayed exceptional leadership skills and a remarkable passion for economics and business management. Tasked with conceptualizing and executing a startup idea, Trinh not only rose to the challenge but also guided their team to success with an inspiring vision and clear strategic direction. They demonstrated a unique ability to identify team members' strengths and empower them to contribute effectively, cultivating a harmonious and productive team dynamic.

One moment that stands out vividly was when Trinh's team encountered significant obstacles in aligning their product concept with market demand. Trinh showcased their adaptability and entrepreneurial mindset by leading a pivot in the project's focus, seamlessly integrating AI—Trinh's area of expertise—into their startup solution. This bold decision not only revitalized the project but also impressed the evaluation panel, including myself. Trinh's ability to navigate uncertainty, inspire collaboration, and deliver results under pressure reflects the qualities of a true leader and innovator.

Trinh's unwavering optimism and dedication to personal and professional growth are truly commendable. His journey at FPT University exemplifies a balance between technical expertise and business acumen, making them an ideal candidate for your MBA program. I am confident that Trinh will thrive in your institution's rigorous academic environment and contribute meaningfully to its community, as well as the future will be able to develop the relationship between the two countries Vietnam and Taiwan.

Thank you for considering this outstanding individual for your program. I deeply appreciate your time and consideration of this recommendation for Trinh Tran Nhat. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,
